Artie is a seasoned litigator focusing on labor law and general liability cases, guiding matters from inception to resolution. Throughout his career, he has been associated with prominent mid-size firms and managed a boutique litigation firm, handling hundreds of civil litigation claims on both the plaintiff and defense sides. Artie's experience extends beyond the courtroom—he previously served as the Associate Director of Advancement and Communications at the University of California College of the Law in San Francisco, where he worked alongside top legal minds to inspire the next generation of attorneys.

With a deep commitment to justice, Artie prioritizes his clients' needs, crafting strategies that put their best interests at the forefront. His approach combines instinct, experience, and an unwavering dedication to excellence. Whether navigating complex litigation or identifying key advantages in a case, Artie's
