

Dominique Sicari Of Counsel

801 South Figueroa Street
Suite 2100
Los Angeles, CA 90017
dominique.sicari@ropers.com
d (213) 312-2031
m (323) 472-1191

Dominique practices construction defect, premises liability, habitability claims, and personal injury litigation. He manages lawsuits at all phases of litigation, including discovery, motion practice, and trial. Dominique also has experience with commercial contracts and related business litigation.

Prior to law school, he worked for his family's businesses, specializing in construction.

Representative Matters

- Won dismissal of a $500,000 claim against our client, a manufacturer of atomizers, after we demonstrated that the explosion which led the plaintiff's e-cigarette to burst in his pocket, causing third-degree burns to his thigh and torso, resulted from a defect in the e-cigarette's battery and not the atomizer.
- Successfully resolved a claim brought by a plaintiff who lost his hand in an industrial accident while operating machinery at our client's business. The plaintiff claimed to be an invitee of our client, but we argued that the plaintiff was an employee whose remedies were preempted by

PRACTICE AREAS

Class Actions & Complex Litigation
Construction
Insurance Services
Product Liability & Torts

COURT ADMISSIONS

California
USDC: Central District of California

EDUCATION

JD, Southwestern Law School, 2016
BA, University of California, Irvine, 2012

workers' compensation laws. While awaiting a ruling on the motion for summary judgment, the plaintiff agreed to settle the matter for which he initially sought $3 million in damages.

- Negotiated a favorable settlement for a mid-sized developer and construction company. The settlement was reached during the pre-litigation process required for residential construction defect cases.